Fred currently works as a researcher here at Bio-Tech. He's been a very (1) member of our staff and has worked here for over ten years now. He's (2) about alternative energies and this can be seen in the energy and enthusiasm he puts into his work. He's also (3) , so he is never afraid to work independently or to work on difficult tasks. Finally, he's always (4) , even when he comes across problems in his work.

We have this new colleague at work, Sheila. She's only been here for two weeks and already I don't like her very much. She's one of those (5) people who has a lot of plans, but she's so (6) about it all. She thinks she's better than everyone else. But if you try and suggest a different idea, she gets really upset. So she's a strange mix of being very sure of herself, but incredibly (7) at the same time. She told me that she wants to be our team leader. If she thinks that's going to happen overnight, she's really (8)
