

Everyone needs a

FAVOURITE PLACE

by Rebecca Grant

Today, I want to write about my favourite place. It's by the window in my bedroom. I've got a dark red armchair and a blanket. My grandma made the blanket for me when I was little. Next to the chair is a bookshelf with my favourite books, and there's also a little chest of drawers. On top of it, there are some stones I collected from the beach. I've got a few photographs on one side of the window and a mirror on the other side. I've got curtains on my window, too.

Do you have a favourite place at home? Is it in your bedroom, or in the sitting room, or somewhere else? Maybe you don't have one, but you want to make somewhere you like special. Then here are a few ideas to help you create your special place.

I. Read the article and choose if the sentences are true or false.

1. Rebecca has got three pieces of furniture in her favourite place.
2. Rebecca's photographs are next to the mirror.
3. She says it's nicer to have light from a window.
4. She has ideas for a favourite corner without any furniture.
5. She tells us the colour of one thing in her favourite place.
6. She says most people's favourite places are the same.
