A. Read the question carefully and type in your answer inside the box.

1. What do you call the line segments that have the same distance between them and they do not meet?

2. What do you call the lines that meet at a point.

3. What lines formed an L-shaped figure with 90 degree angle called?

4. What is an angle that has 90 degrees?

5. What is an angle that has more than 90 degrees?

6. What is an angle that has less than 90 degrees?

_____

B. Identify the following lines if it is parallel, intersecting or perpendicular. Write your answer on the blank.