V. KỸ NĂNG NGHE

Bài 1: Nghe và điền một từ vào chỗ trống.

Let's go to the Mekong Delta enjoying the Ooc-om-bok Festival of the Khmer people. It is also called the moon (1)_____ festival. Traditionally, the Khmer use the festival to thank the Moon God for giving them a good (2)_____. It also marks the end of the year of the Khmer calendar. Ooc-om-bok occurs in mid-October, according to the lunar calendar. When the Moon is at its highest position, the monks and the elders (3)_____ young rice and fruits to the moon God. Then they take some young rice to feed children and ask them about their (4)_____. People sing and dance in the (5)_____. Visitors can participate in games, watch traditional fashion shows, and see flying (6)_____ contests. The next day, villagers organize the race. This is a (7)_____ race that attracts many tourists. Here is some advice to tourists at the Ooc-om-bok Festival. They should not wear shorts or sleeveless shirts when attending the (8)_____ ceremony. And don't litter the temple grounds. And now, let's ...

LIVEWORKSHEETS