

1. Ben shows a movie to his class about Nazi Germany. They ask him some questions.→	2. Ben can't come up with an answer and decides the students need to learn it themselves. <hr/> <hr/>
3. Ben comes up with <hr/>	4. The Wave starts affecting class members. They now <hr/> <hr/>
5. Ben likes this change and enjoys the feeling of power. He allows the experiment to continue, making new rules →	6. The Wave grows in popularity. However some of its members become intolerant and fanatic. As a result, <hr/> <hr/>
7. One of them writes to the Grapevine and Laurie realizes they have to expose the dangers of The Wave.	8. The Grapevine publishes a story on The Wave. Its effects are: a. _____ b. _____ c. _____
9. David argues with Laurie and pushes her, then realizes he has been blind to the effects of The Wave. He decides to leave it.	10. Ben realizes the experiment has gone too far and is pressured to put an end to it.
11. Ben gets all The Wave members in the auditorium and _____ —	12. The students are shocked into realizing that <hr/>

What does Ben Ross realize at the end of his experiment? _____
