Travel Journal: A Day in Paris

Hello, I'm Nadia. Today was my first day in Paris, and it was amazing! I woke up early in the morning because I was excited to explore the city. The weather was perfect—sunny and warm.

I started my day by visiting the Eiffel Tower. It was so tall! I took many photos and looked at the beautiful view of Paris from the top. After that, I walked to a café and had a delicious croissant with some coffee. The café was small, but very cozy.

In the afternoon, I went to the Louvre Museum. It was very big! I saw the famous painting, the Mona Lisa. It was smaller than I expected, but still very beautiful. There were so many people in the museum, so it was a little crowded, but I still enjoyed the art.

After the museum, I took a boat ride on the River Seine. It was so relaxing, and I saw many beautiful buildings along the river. I finished the day by having dinner at a restaurant near my hotel. I ate chicken. It was delicious!

I am so happy to be in Paris, and I can't wait to see more tomorrow!
