1. Have you ever seen a crime happen?
2. Do you feel safe in your neighborhood?
3. Have you ever heard of a pickpocket before?
4. What would you do if you saw a suspect running away?
5. How do you think people can prevent crime?
6. Have you ever had to pay a fine for something?
7. What is the most important law in your opinion?

4. Read four opinions. Which one do you agree the most with and why?

John: "I think crime is bad. People should follow the law. Last week, my friend got robbed, and it was really scary. I don't want that to happen again."

Sarah: "I believe laws help keep us safe. They tell us what is right and wrong. One time, I saw someone helping the police catch a thief. It made me feel good to see people care."

Mike: "I don't know what to think. Laws can help, but sometimes they seem unfair. I heard about a person who went to jail for a little thing. That made me wonder if the law is really good."
