1.Match phrasal verbs with their definitions.

Phrasal Verb	Definition
walk away from one/thing	to avoid doing something that you do not want to do, or to escape responsibility for something
do away with	to recover from
walk out of	do something good/nice to compensate after a mistake or argument
pull out of sth	busy with things that are considered to be wrong for others
stand up to one	to leave a difficult situation or relationship, etc. instead of staying and trying to deal with it
get up to sth	stop being involved in sth
make off with	remove or put an end to something
cut down on	to leave an event such as a meeting or performance because you are angry or disapprove of something
carry on with	continue an activity or task
get out of	to steal
make up for	to reduce
get over	to defend yourself against a powerful person or organization when they treat you unfairly

Ex.2.Fill in the gaps with a suitable phrasal verb from exercise 1 in the correct form.

1. Despite the interruptions, the teacher .....the lesson.
2. To improve her health, she decided to .....sugary snacks.
3. The company plans to .....outdated technology and upgrade all its systems.
4. He tried to .....doing the chores by pretending he was sick.
5. It took him months to .....the disappointment of not getting the job.
6. The kids always .....mischief when they're left alone.
7. The thief .....a bag of cash before the police arrived.
8. After another quarrel, he wanted to put things right with Amanda. So he bough a fabulous bunch of flowers to .....being impatient and rude.
9. The team had to .....the tournament due to injuries.
10. He finally.....his boss when he was unfairly blamed for the mistake.
11. After months of conflict, she decided to .....the dismissive management and suffocating work environment.
12. Several attendees .....the meeting when the speaker made offensive remarks.

LIVEWORKSHEETS