Read the sentences and answer: True or False

1. When discussing physical presence in class, it is important to consider proximity, appropriacy, movement, and contact.

2. When discussing using the teacher's voice in class, it is important to use a shouting voice.

3. When discussing the stages of a lesson, it is important to provide some kind of closure, when an activity or lesson has finished.

4. Orderly rows are the most common seating arrangement in large classes.

5. Circles and horseshoes, seating arrangements are better to use in smaller clases.

LIVEWORKSHEETS