When I was a child, I always waited for Independence Day. My father used to tell me to watch a parade together. We saw it from our front yard. I remember how attractive the parade was.

In the first line of the parade, I saw the people dressed up uniquely. Some people were Indonesian heroes' costumes. Some others dressed like local ghosts. They were scary but they were funny, too.

Next, I remembered that a lot of people marched in the second line. They waved a mini Indonesian flag. They walked around the village and sang the "Hari Merdeka" song. Their singing was accompanied by traditional instruments like angklung, suling, and rebana.

At last, I also saw that many children rode their bicycles in the parade. They decorated their bicycles creatively.

The next game was a tug of war, sack race, and tandem race. All the games were held at the same time. I saw Andre participate in the sack race. At first, he led the race, but suddenly he fell in the middle of the race. But finally, he came second. It was so sad that he couldn't finish first. Meanwhile, Pipit participated in a tandem race with our friends. Her team came third. It was not too bad.

The last game was the krupuk race. Once again I met Galang in the final. The fun part was I finished first and he finished after me. I finished my krupuk with three or four bites.

The Ugly Duckling (Part 1)

Once upon a time on a big farm, a Mother Duck sat on her nest. She had to keep her six eggs warm until they hatched. At last, the eggs began to crack. One by one, five yellow ducklings came out of the eggs. They shook their wings and said, "Quack, quack." Then, they walked gracefully. "Look at all of you!" said Mother Duck with joy. "You are all so cute!" She counted one, two, three, four, five. "Oh, dear! I should have six ducklings!" Mother Duck was worried. But one large egg was still in the nest. It was a little stubborn. So, Mother Duck sat on her nest again and waited some more. The next day, the big egg cracked open. A shy duckling came out. He was not yellow! He was gray and bigger than others. But he was weak and it walked with a funny wobble.

After swimming, the yellow ducklings started to play. They jumped and splashed in muddy puddles. They shook their muddy wings and they laughed and laughed. The Ugly Duckling tried to play with his brothers and sisters, too. "I can jump and shake my wings!" exclaimed the Ugly Duckling. He was so happy. But, the yellow ducklings yelled, "Go away!" The Ugly Duckling walked with his head down. He was sad. The Ugly Duckling went to his mom and said, "Mom, they don't want to play with me. Am I too ugly?" "You're different. He saw a monkey on a tree.

"Will you be my friend?" asked the elephant.

"You are too big. You cannot swing from trees like me," replied the arrogant monkey.

Next, the elephant met a rabbit. He asked him to be his friend.

But the shy rabbit said, "You are too big to play in my burrow!"

Then the elephant met a frog.

"Will you be my friend? He asked.

"How can I?" asked the disgruntled frog.

He met a fox next.
