

WEEK 2

ADVERBIAL PHRASES

What is an adverb?

- Remember that adverbs change the meaning of verbs in sentences.
- An adverb phrase or adverb (adverbial) clause gives us information about the verb such as how, when, where, and how often something happens.
- There are 3 main types of adverbial phrases: time, place, and frequency (how often something happens).

(Adverbial) Phrases of Time

today	the day before yesterday
tomorrow	the day after tomorrow
the other day	during the winter
this week / this month / this year	over the summer next week / next month / next year	in the springtime
last week / last month / last year	very late

Adverb (Adverbial) Phrases of Place

Some examples of adverb phrases of place:

here	down	through the looking glass
there	up	around the bend
back	up front	over the moon
near the (place)	away from	under the sea around the corner	in the box	over the rainbow out in the street	side by side	by the light of the silvery moon
