Write what you would say in the following situations. Choose the best response from a, b, c and d:

1) Your mother bought you a present on your graduation. Guess what it is!

    a- I don't believe it!

    b- Maybe, it is a new mobile!

    c- Thank you, Mum, for your present.

    d- I can't make a guess! But I am excited!

2) One of your friends wants to know why you chose to study engineering.

    a- I don't think medicine is the quest of all people.

    b- I don't know why people like me to be an engineer.

    c- I think engineering is a very easy branch to study at university.

    d- I think it is the best choice because I like math and physics.

3) A survey includes a question about what you like best about the 360 Mall.

    a- No one could talk about that!

    b- You'd better try it yourself.

    c- We are bored of staying at home.

    d- I like its combination of shopping and edutainment.

4) Your uncle suggests that you should update your computer to the latest operating system.

    a- Sorry! I don't need to replace my computer.

    b- Uncle! I agree with you on changing my computer.

    c- I can't agree with you. The mouse is working properly.

    d- I can't agree more. My computer system is very old.
