

Section 1: Personal and Emotional Context

1. The ambitious new employee is already considered an _____ leader in the industry.
2. She was _____ when she received an unexpected promotion.
3. The broken glass and furniture were _____ across the floor after the party.
4. His criticism had a _____ effect on her confidence during the presentation.
5. The smell of freshly baked cookies always _____ memories of my grandmother's kitchen.
6. After months of working overtime, the stress began to _____ his health.
7. His lifestyle became more _____ as he transitioned to a desk job.
8. The fight over the inheritance caused family stress to _____ their personal relationships.
9. Her _____ attitude towards her career led her to miss several growth opportunities.
10. After years of hiking, he eventually _____ the high altitudes in the mountains.

Section 2: Workplace and Professional Context

11. Despite their efforts, the team worked late into the night _____, as the software still failed to launch.
12. I finally _____ the new software after  LIVEWORKSHEETS practicing with raw video

13. The lack of diversity in the film _____ a lot about the production company's priorities.

14. To move forward with this plan, someone has to _____ and make the final decision.

15. After weeks of criticism, the company faced significant _____ for its unethical practices.

16. During the intense meeting, he could barely _____ because of the constant interruptions.

17. The report was carefully _____ to ensure all the data was accurate before publishing.

18. The project manager refused to _____ the mistake and instead accepted full responsibility.

19. The public expected immediate results, but the project was still _____, requiring more time to develop.

20. She decided to _____ her stressful corporate job and pursue a simpler life.

Section 3: Social and Cultural Context

21. The conflict between the neighbors turned into a classic case of _____.

22. The museum's lighting and music created a perfect _____ for the art exhibit.

23. His father was an architect, so he decided to _____ and study the same profession.

24. If nobody else wants to volunteer, I _____ do it myself.

25. His performance as a mentor went unnoticed, making him an _____ hero of the program.

26. The actor is one of the most _____ talents in the industry right now.

27. The scandal left the politician's career _____.

28. They decided to _____ the tourist traps and visit the quieter parts of the city.

29. She's the type of person who always _____ her mother's calm and logical demeanor.

30. She was clearly _____ the opportunity, taking full advantage of the situation.

Section 4: Critical Thinking and Decision-Making

31. I was surprised that she chose to _____ her controversial opinion so publicly.

32. He refused to _____ his beliefs, even under significant pressure.

LIVE WORKSHEETS

33. The misleading article was taken _____ by many readers who failed to question its credibility.

34. The instructor was very understanding and decided to _____ the struggling student.

35. After the incident, the team tried to _____ the situation and focus on the positive outcomes.

36. The constant need to memorize formulas through _____ frustrated the students.

37. If you continue to argue with her, you'll need to _____; she's very persistent.

38. During the pandemic, healthcare workers who risked their lives every day were often _____.

39. They tried _____ for the last available seats at the concert.

40. The neighbor's dog barking all night didn't _____ the residents, who were already frustrated with the noise.

 LIVEWORKSHEETS

Section 5: Everyday Scenarios

41. The politician's promise of reform didn't sit well with voters, leading many to think, "_____ his promises!"
42. The new fitness coach reminded the group that this training method was still _____, so results would take time.
43. The instructor was very understanding and decided to _____ the struggling student.
44. At the debate, he _____ his opponent for promoting harmful policies.
45. After the hurricane, piles of _____ blocked the roads, making transportation impossible.
46. His constant lateness began to _____ with his boss and colleagues.
47. The museum's lighting created a relaxing _____, ideal for a long visit.