Change the underlined expressions to their synonyms.

get at	get out	get over

1.You're always criticizing the way I dress up. — _____

2. Could you explain that more clearly? I can't grasp what you're trying to tell me. . — _____

3. He was so heartbroken when Sandra left him. It took him ages to recover from that divorce.

_____

4. My son tries to make up plausible excuses not to help me in the kitchen. — _____

5. I am sorry but I am a bit late. Could you move out of my path, please? — _____

6. I cannot reach to that jar of honey. — _____

7. The company is keen on communicating their brand-new approach of promoting their services.

— _____

8. I still can't comprehend my former boyfriend got married before me! — _____

9. If my parents learn about my secret, they'll kill me! — _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS