Hi Lily, how was your weekend? Mine was good. On Saturday morning, Mum and I went to the new shopping centre. It's called Summervales. The other shopping centres in town look very old-fashioned now. We didn't buy anything.

I think I prefer the Waterfield shopping centre. It's less modern, but it's also less expensive! In the afternoon, we went to a museum. There were some beautiful flower paintings. A French artist painted them two years ago. She was at the museum. I said 'Hello' in French and asked her a question, but she didn't understand me! Oh no! But she was very nice and spoke to me in English. Unfortunately, it was difficult to see the paintings because there were a lot of people at the museum. In the evening, I went to the cinema with Billy and Rose. There were three films at the cinema. I wanted to watch Mr Late (a funny film) or Chips and TV (a family film), but we watched Look Out! It was frightening! On Sunday I just played computer games at home because I was tired.

See you soon, Kate

PS Guess what? The singer Marvin Martin was at Summervales! I took a photo!
