Lesson 11

1. Two nouns can also be used as verbs EXEPT graduate / opportunity / experience

2.

Conversation: Planning a Vacation

Anna: What could you do / are you going to do for the summer holidays?

Ben: I 'm going to visit / might visit my cousins in Italy. How about you?

Anna: I 'm going to go / might go to the beach, but I'm not sure yet.
If the weather is nice, I 'm going to go / could go camping too.

Ben: That sounds fun! I 'm sending / will send you pictures from my trip.

Anna: Great! Don't forget to bring me back some souvenirs.

Lesson 12
Listen to track 25 and answer the following questions.

1. When did Hazel Sampson died?
   A. 13th of February 2014 B. 14th of January 2014 C. 14th of February 2014

2. What happens when the last native speaker of a language dies?
   A. No one studies that language anymore
   B. No one thinks or dream in that language anymore
   C. No one cares of that language anymore

3. In the future, how many English speakers will be according to the speaker?
   A. 2 million B. 2 billion C. 3 billion

4. In what year and percentage do some academics predict about the world's languages will no longer exist? A. 2010, 80% B. 2100, 70% C. 2100, 90%

5. All are the speaker's opinion EXCEPT
   A. We don't need one global language to communicate.
   B. Let's learn one language to communicate effectively.
   C. When we lose a language, we lose a way of thinking about the world.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Lesson 13

1. To explain the purpose of doing something in case / so that / or else / as
2. To talk about the possibility of something happening in case / so that / or else / as
3. To say what will happen if you don't do something in case / so that / or else / as
4. To give a reason (similar to because) in case / so that / or else / as

Lesson 14

1. Choose the correct sentence

A. I apologized to them for being late.
B. He apologized for be late.
C. He agreed to finished early.

2.
Direct: She said, "I will finish the report by Monday."
Reported: She _____ to finish the report by Monday.

informed	wondered	promised
requested	exclaimed

3.
Direct: He said, "This movie is amazing!"
Reported: He _____ that the movie was amazing.

4.
Direct: They said, "We have already sent the email."
Reported: They _____ us that they had already sent the email.

5.
Direct: She asked, "Can you help me with this project?"
Reported: She _____ assistance with the project.

6.
Direct: He asked, "Did you enjoy the trip?"
Reported: He _____ if I had enjoyed the trip.

Lesson 15

1. If she _____ (study) harder,
   she _____ (pass) the exam. (3rd conditional)
2. If they _____ (arrive) earlier, they _____ (caught) the train. (3rd conditional)
3. If she _____ (not drop) out of school,
   she _____ (have) a better career today. (mixed)
4. If I _____ (take) that job offer,
   I _____ (be) living in New York now. (3rd conditional)
5. If he _____ (apologize),
   she _____ (forgive) him. (3rd conditional)
6. If he _____ (listen) to the doctor,
   he _____ (feel) healthier now. (mixed conditional)

LIVEWORKSHEETS