Instructions: Choose the correct answer for each question. Each question is worth 2 marks.

---

1. What is a role model?

A. A person who inspires others through their actions and qualities.

B. A person who criticizes others.

C. A person who is always successful in life.

D. A person who teaches lessons in school.

---

2. Who is most likely to copy the behavior of a role model?

A. Older people.

B. Younger people.

C. Celebrities.

D. Teachers.

---

3. Which of the following is NOT mentioned as a quality of a role model?

A. Personal traits that attract others.

B. Their ability to influence thoughts and behaviors.

C. Being distant and unapproachable.

D. Their values that inspire others.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Can a role model be someone we know well?

A. Yes, they can only be people we know personally.

B. No, role models must always be celebrities.

C. Yes, they can be people we know well or people who are distant.

D. No, a role model must be a family member.

---

5. What can sometimes make a role model unexpected?

A. Their ability to inspire others through criticism.

B. They must always be older than us.

C. A boy could have a female role model, or a girl could have her father as a role model.

D. A role model must always be perfect.

---

6. Why are role models important?

A. They provide us with financial support.

B. They influence our thoughts, values, and behaviors.

C. They make decisions for us.

D. They are always famous.

---

7. Which of the following is an example of a role model?

A. A teacher who inspires students to learn.

B. A pet who brings comfort to its owner.

C. A friend who borrows things but never returns them.

D. A stranger who passes by every day.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

8. Which statement is TRUE about role models?

A. Role models are only people we admire from a distance.

B. Role models cannot be family members.

C. Role models are chosen because of their influence and character.

D. Role models must always be perfect in every way.

---

9. According to the passage, what quality might a father or brother have to be considered a role model?

A. Kindness and guidance.

B. Their ability to entertain.

C. Their wealth and success.

D. Their physical appearance.

---

10. What is the most important takeaway about role models?

A. They must be famous to inspire others.

B. They play an important role in shaping thoughts and values.

C. They must always have a close relationship with us.

D. They only influence younger people.

LIVEWORKSHEETS