Name: Class: No:

Prefixes and Suffixes in airline context

Directions: Complete the following sentence using the words provided.

cross-check	malfunctioned	caterers	jeopardize
deplane	offloaded	complimentary	inoperative
incapacitated	reseat	firmly	retractable

1. If the captain becomes _____, the first officer must act as the pilot-in-command.
2. During the pe-flight briefing, any crew members who fails a safety test must be _____.
3. During refueling, passengers and crew members can can remain in the cabin. They do not need to _____.
4. For safety reasons, whenever cabin crew members arm or disarm their designated door, they must _____ the opposite door.
5. Crew members must inform the cabin chief whenever they see any _____ items, such as broken seats or jammed tray tables.
6. During an evacuation, pull the strap _____ to inflate your life vest.
7. Galley operators must collaborate with _____ to ensure that all loaded meals are correct.
8. When there is a/an _____ item, crew members must inform the cabin chief right away.
9. Premium airlines offer _____ amenities, so passengers do not need to buy anything onboard.
10. Disruptive passengers may _____ others, so they must be offloaded if an airplane is still on the ground.

LIVEWORKSHEETS