

READING STRATEGIES 5

TITLES

Before you read a text, it's a good idea to read the title and think about what the article is about. Read these titles and choose A B or C.

Take two brothers

Rebecca Pearson meets the team behind a lively new thriller

What is the article about?

- A. Two young men who write a novel
- B. A woman who joins an exciting group
- C. A sports team that hires two young men and a young woman

THE SHELL ARTIST

At the age of 83 Peter Cooke has become a master of his art

What is the article about?

- A. How to be active in your old age
- B. A senior citizen who makes art from seashells
- C. An older citizen writing about how to be an artist

GARY AND ME

The restaurant owner John Moore writes about his relationship with his son Gary, the famous TV chef

What is the article about?

- A. A man who owns a restaurant writes about his TV Chef son
- B. It's an article about two restaurant owners
- C. It's an article about a TV show

Five-star luxury meets up-to-date technology

What is the article about?

- A. How people enjoy old-fashioned opulence
- B. How robots will become restaurant chefs
- C. A hotel using technology to make guest experience more luxurious

IN HOT WATER

Rachel Mills is a scientist who spends as much time as she can at the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean

What is the article about?

- A. A woman who goes into the ocean to study it
- B. A woman who spends time in a jacuzzi
- C. A woman who prefers the Atlantic Ocean to the Pacific Ocean

ACTING MINUS DRAMA

Harriet Walter has written a fascinating book about her profession. Benedicte Page reports.

What is the article about?

- A. Benedicte Page wrote a book about Harriet Walter
- B. Harriet Page wrote a book about Benedicte Page
- C. Benedicte Page is writing about actor Harriet Walter's book.

KEEPING THE HOLIDAY-MAKERS HAPPY

A chalet girl's work is never done, Sarah Sutherland-Pilch tells Veronica Lee - in between making beds and delicious dinners

What is the article about?

- A. Sutherland-Pilch and Veronica Lee had a good holiday at a chalet
- B. Veronica Lee writes about Sutherland-Pilch, a hotel worker
- C. Sutherland-Pilch writes about a hotel worker named Veronica Lee

