

Reading Comprehension

Washing Dishes

Washing Dishes

Washing dishes is not fun. It is a chore that must be done. Everyone in the family must help to keep the kitchen clean. First, put hot water in the sink and add Joy. Next, wash glasses, cutlery, plates, pots and pans. Then, rinse in cold water. Last, place in the drain and cover them.

Read the story carefully. Choose the correct answer.

1. What is a chore?

- a. game
- b. work at home
- c. homework

2. Where are dishes washed?

3. Who keeps the kitchen clean?

- a. the family
- b. the maid
- c. the mom

4. What do you wash first?

- a. glasses
- b. pots and pans
- c. plates

5. What do you wash last?

- a. glasses
- b. pots and pans
- c. plates

6. What is cutlery?

7. Why do you put the dishes in the drain?

- a. To keep them clean.
- b. To dry them.
- c. To keep them wet