5 x 0.4 = 2 marks

John had to travel to Spain. So he left his house at 10 o'clock in the morning and caught a taxi to the airport. He went to the check-in desk with his luggage. When the man who worked for the airline asked for his passport, John became very upset: he didn't have it! He jumped back into the taxi and told the driver to take him home. The driver drove quickly and John arrived back at his house in twenty minutes. He ran into the house and went into his bedroom. He found his passport on the bedside table and left the house again. But the taxi wasn't there! He shouted angrily: 'I don't believe it. The taxi left!'. He ran down the street and looked for another taxi. After a few minutes, John found another taxi and told the driver to take him to the airport as quickly as possible. The traffic on the roads was very bad and, unfortunately, John arrived at the airport late and he missed the plane. He was very sad and went to the airline desk. They promised to get him another ticket to fly the following day.

1. The text describes a terrible day in a person's life.
2. John felt relaxed when he was at the check-in desk.
3. His passport was under a table.
4. The first taxi driver didn't wait for John.
5. John decided to cancel the trip.
