Photography Contest

A photographer is the job that I want to do after I graduate because I really like taking photos of people and things I see in my daily life. I also love traveling to new places. Last month, I had a chance to take part in a photography contest. It was my first contest since I started taking photos. There were loads of people from all around the country in the competition, which made me so excited. I met lots of the other competitors who had traveled to different places and they taught me a lot about taking good photos. We had to make groups of four and choose one topic. Our group chose to take photos of daily life. We went out into the city to take pictures. After that, we met again to select the best pictures and discuss the presentation for the final day. I was so surprised that my team won the top prize of the contest. It was one of the most memorable experiences in my life.
