I go to the swimming pool every day. No, I don't have to. I want to! Swimming is so much fun. It helps me forget about school and homework for some time. That is why I go swimming four times a week for one hour. The pool is in the centre of my town and my parents take me there because they know how much I like it.

It is a very special day in our calendar. People all over the country decorate the city centre in blue ribbons, we paint different places. In my town we also go on parades in funny costumes. This is a happy day. It takes place once a year and I think it is my favourite.

Dear Kate,

I really love it here. There are lots of things to do. You can watch a film in the cinema, meet your friends in a café, go for a walk in the park or for a swim in the sports centre. There are film and music festivals every month. It's never boring. I hope my parents and I never move.

Hi Laura,

Last week I was on a school trip with my class. At first we wanted to go to London but it was too expensive. Finally, we decided to go to the Polish mountains.

The trip was three days long and it was great! We left on Monday morning and came back on Wednesday evening. We travelled by coach. The journey took six hours.

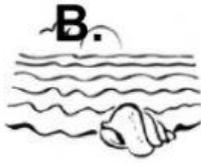

During the trip we went for a walk every day. We also went to the swimming pool. In the evenings we watched films. Most students wanted to have parties, but the teacher didn't agree. The only problem was with breakfast. They gave us only sandwiches. We didn't have any yoghurt with fruit or cereal. But everything else was perfect, even the weather!

Write to me about your trip.

Gina
