Reading

1. Listen and read. Choose the title.

a) Santa and His Reindeer
b) My Christmas Presents
c) Where Does Santa Live?

People in many countries believe that Santa Claus lives in Lapland, Finland. It is a magical land full of elves, reindeer and presents. Lapland is a good home for Santa Claus because it's cold, and full of snow all year round.

People from Norway say that Santa Claus really lives in Drobak, a town in Norway. Each year hundreds of tourists visit the Christmas House and Santa's Post Office. In November and December, the walls are full of letters and cards from children.

The people from Denmark say that Santa has a home in Greenland, and each year the children write letters to send to his secret address.

2. Read and choose the correct answer.

1. Finland / Lapland is the land of reindeer.
2. Santa's Post Office is full of letters / kids.
3. People say that Santa lives / plays in Greenland.

3. Where is it? Read and put a tick (✓).

	Lapland, Finland	Drobak, Norway	Greenland
Santa has a secret address in this country.
This is a magical land full of elves.
There is Santa's Post Office in this place.
The walls are full of letters and cards from children.

LIVEWORKSHEETS