A Story for A2: A Day at the Airport

Emma is excited because she is flying to Paris for her vacation. She arrives at the airport early and checks the departures board to find her flight. After finding her flight number, she heads to the bag drop counter to check in her heavy suitcase. The staff gives her a boarding pass, and she heads toward the security check.

At the security check, Emma puts her backpack and phone into a tray and walks through the scanner. Once everything is fine, she walks toward the departure lounge to wait. She sees other passengers sitting and chatting while waiting for their flights.

When it is time to board, Emma follows the signs to Gate 15. She hands her boarding pass to the staff and walks into the plane. Her seat is in Row 10, by the window, which makes her happy. She loves looking out of the window during flights.

After the flight lands, Emma goes to baggage reclaim to pick up her suitcase. Then she heads to customs. The officer at customs asks her a few questions and lets her through.Outside the arrivals area, Emma finds a taxi stand and takes a cab to her hotel. She is excited to start her adventure in Paris.

True or False Questions

1. Emma is traveling to Rome for her vacation.
2. She checks the departures board to find her flight.
3. Emma carries her heavy suitcase onto the plane.
4. At the security check, Emma puts her backpack and phone into a tray.
5. Emma waits for her flight in the departure lounge.
6. Her seat is in Row 15 on the plane.
7. Emma picks up her suitcase at baggage reclaim after the flight.
8. The customs officer stops Emma and does not let her through.
9. Emma takes a taxi from the arrivals area to her hotel.

LIVEWORKSHEETS