

SIXTH LEVEL

AUTONOMOUS WORK UNIT 3

PAST PASSIVE VOICE

Complete the sentences with the past simple passive voice. Then drag the doer from the box to the gap.

The Beatles

Architect Christopher Wren

Artist John Constable

1. The painting Salisbury Cathedral _____ (paint) by _____.
2. The song HEY JUDE _____ (sing) by _____.
3. St. Paul cathedral and many other buildings _____ (build) by _____.
4. Which famous British landmark _____ (build) more than 4,000 years ago?
5. In 2004, some dolphins _____ (find) near Vauxhall Bridge.

PRESENT PASSIVE VOICE

Complete the sentences with the present simple passive voice.

1. Ceviche _____ (prepare) with raw fish.
2. This smartphone _____ (make) in China.
3. A love letter _____ (write) by Paul to her wife.
4. Thousands of people _____ (kill) every year.
5. Korean dramas _____ (watch) by many people.

ACTIVE VOICE OR PASSIVE VOICE

Read the sentence and choose Active or Passive depending on it.

1. "J.K. Rowling wrote the famous Harry Potter series."

a) Active

b) Passive

2. "The giant tortoises roam freely on the Galápagos Islands."

a) Active

b) Passive

3. "The stunning views from Chimborazo were admired by many travelers."

a) Active

b) Passive

READING

Read the text and complete the spaces. Drag the words from the box into the gap.

communication

cultures

memories

homesickness

learning

expensive

adventure

experiences

Traveling around the World

Traveling around the world is an exciting _____! Many people dream of visiting different countries and experiencing new _____. There are both good and bad things about traveling.

One of the biggest advantages is the new _____ you gain. You can try new foods, meet different people, and learn about various traditions. The world has many stunning sites, allowing you to take amazing photos and create great _____.

Traveling offers great _____ opportunities. You learn about geography, history, and languages, which can help you in school and life. Plus, it can be a lot of fun with activities like hiking and exploring new cities.

However, traveling can be _____. You need money for flights, hotels, and food, which can make budgeting difficult. It also takes time to plan a trip, and long flights can be tiring.

Another challenge is _____. When you travel for a long time, you might miss your home and family. It's important to stay connected with loved ones. Additionally, in some countries, you may face language barriers, making _____ difficult.

In conclusion, traveling has its ups and downs. It's a wonderful way to see new places and learn, but it can also be challenging. With good planning, you can have an amazing adventure!