

Present Progressive and Past Progressive (Active and Passive)

Complete the gaps in the text with the correct form of the verbs in brackets. Use Present Progressive or Past Progressive in Active or Passive voice.

Text 1: A Rainy Afternoon

The rain (1) _____ (start) while Emma (2) _____ (walk) home from school yesterday. People (3) _____ (need/run) to find shelter while shop owners (4) _____ (close) their stores. At the same time, a damaged roof (5) _____ (fix) by construction workers. When Emma got home, her favorite show (6) _____ (still air) on TV, so she quickly sat down to watch it.

Text 2: A Busy Office

Right now, everyone in the office (7) _____ (work) hard to meet the deadline. Documents (8) _____ (print), emails (9) _____ (write), and phones (10) _____ (ring) non-stop. Meanwhile, the manager (11) _____ (give) instructions to the team.

Last week, one of the printers (12) _____ (have to/repair) because it broke down while it (13) _____ (use). However, the tasks (14) _____ (have to/complete) despite the technical issues.

Text 3: A School Event

Yesterday, while the students (15) _____ (prepare) for the school play, decorations (16) _____ (hang) in the auditorium. Some students (17) _____ (rehearse) their lines, while others (18) _____ (paint) the backdrops. At the same time, the teachers (19) _____ (discuss) the seating arrangements, and extra chairs (20) _____ (bring) in by volunteers.

Text 4: A Neighborhood Cleanup

Right now, volunteers (21) _____ (clean) the local park. Rubbish (22) _____ (collect) and sorted into bins. Some people (23) _____ (paint) the benches, while others (24) _____ (plant) flowers in the garden area.

Last month, when the cleanup of the neighborhood (25) _____ (organize) for the first time, a lot of residents (26) _____ (help) with tasks like removing weeds and trimming bushes. Even the younger children (27) _____ (join) to pick up some trash.

Grammar Task: Present and Past (Active and Passive)

Use Present Simple or Progressive, Past Simple or Progressive, Future (will or be going to) and Modals or Semi-Modals in Active or Passive to complete the texts.

Text 1: A Busy Morning

Every morning, Sarah (1) _____ (wake up) at 6 a.m. Yesterday, however, she (2) _____ (wake up) late because her alarm (3) _____ (not set). While she (4) _____ (get ready) for school, her little brother (5) _____ (drop) a carton of milk and spilt it all over the kitchen floor.

Right now, her father (6) _____ (clean) up the mess, and Sarah (7) _____ (wait) for the bus. "Unlike today, tomorrow, I (8) _____ (not / be going to/be) late," she thinks. "I (9) _____ (ask) my mother to wake me up earlier."

Text 2: Plans for the Weekend

This weekend, Mark and his friends (10) _____ (plan) to go camping. Their bags (11) _____ (should/pack) tonight, because they (12) _____ (leave) early in the morning. "Everything (13) _____ (must/prepare) in advance, so we won't forget anything," Mark's mom says.

Unfortunately, the weather forecast says it (14) _____ (be going to/rain) heavily tomorrow. "We (15) _____ (have to/cancel) the trip if it gets worse," Mark said. "The tents (16) _____ (not be able to) protect us from such heavy rain."

Text 3: A New Rule at Work

Employees (18) _____ (allow) to work from home twice a week. This new rule (17) _____ (introduce) at the company last week. While the manager (19) _____ (explain) the rule during the meeting, some people (20) _____ (take) notes, and others (21) _____ (ask) questions.

Next week, an online training (22) _____ (be going to/organize) to help employees use the new system. "We (23) _____ (have to/ adapt) quickly," one employee said. "It (24) _____ (be) a big change for everyone."