

Verbs That end in -ER (Present Tense)
yo	-o	nosotros	-emos
tú	-es	vosotros	-éis
usted* él ella	-e	ustedes* ellos ellas	-en

*even though USTED/USTEDES are used to talk TO someone, these forms use the same ending as talking ABOUT someone.

Determine the correct way to express the following statements in Spanish. Write the Spanish version of the statement on the corresponding line; include the subject pronoun.

1. I learn.

2. You are learning. (sing, inf)

3. They do learn.

4. He is sweeping.

5. We sweep.

6. You don't sweep. (pl, inf)

7. You do drink. (sing, for)

8. We are drinking.

9. I drink.

10. They aren't eating.

11. You do eat. (sing, for)

12. She eats.

aprender / to learn
barrer / to sweep
beber / to drink
comer / to eat
comprender / to understand
correr / to read
creer / to believe deber / should, must, to owe esconder / to hide
leer / to read
prometer / to promise
responder / to respond
romper / to break
toser / to cough
vender / to sell

13. We don't understand.

14. You understand. (pl, for)

15. They are understanding.

16. He reads a book.

17. You do read a book. (sing, inf)

18. I am reading a book.

19. You do not believe. (sing, for)

20. We believe.

21. He is believing.
