The Legend of House 1028

This story tells of Bella Aurora , a beautiful young woman and only child . Along with her parents , she attended a bullfight at Independence Square , as it was common at the time for bullfights to be held there . As the show began , a large , robust black bull entered the ring . As usual , the bull took a lap around the arena , observing its surroundings . Then , in a strange and deliberate manner , it slowly approached the area where Bella Aurora was seated and stared directly at her . The young woman was so frightened by the bull's behavior and intense gaze that she fainted , collapsing to the ground . Her parents rushed to her aid , carrying her in their arms back to their home , House 1028 , where they tried to calm her and cure her fright .

Meanwhile , the bull , still in the plaza and unable to locate the young woman , became enraged . It leapt over the protective barrier and charged toward House 1028 . Upon reaching the house , it broke down the front door , terrifying the household servants . It then stormed upstairs to the room where Bella Aurora lay in bed . When Bella Aurora saw the bull , she tried to flee but lacked the strength . The bull charged at her with brutal force , killing her instantly . Upon hearing approaching footsteps , the bull vanished into thin air . Nothing could be done for Bella Aurora . She was found lying in a pool of blood and passed away that same afternoon . Her devastated parents buried her and left the city shortly after .

No one ever discovered where the bull came from or why it had targeted the young woman . It was never seen again .
