

Good morning and welcome to "(1)_____ of History." I'm going to talk about Amelia Earhart, one of the most famous (2)_____ pilots of the twentieth century. She actually learned how to fly right here. Amelia was born in Atchison, Kansas, in (3)_____ and grew up with her parents and younger (4)_____. When she was (5)_____, she took her first flying lesson. (6)_____ - months later, she bought her first plane. She used it to set her first women's (7)_____ by flying as high as (8)_____ thousand feet.

In (9)_____, she became the first woman to fly across the (10)_____ Ocean. Seven years later, she became the (11)_____ person to fly solo across the (12)_____. Amelia was the first woman to do things only (13)_____ pilots did. The American people loved her and she even received a (14)_____ from the president. In (15)_____, she was ready for a last challenge. She wanted to be the first woman to fly around the world. On June first, Amelia and her (16)_____, Fred Noonan, began their (17)_____ thousand-mile journey. On July second, 1937, Amelia Earhart's plane (18)_____. The last time anyone heard from her was at 8:45 a.m. Despite many searches over the years, no one knows what (19)_____ to Amelia Earhart and her navigator, Fred Noonan. Today, she is remembered for being one of the greatest female pilots of the twentieth (20)_____.