Reading

A Read Jason's description of a special day.

The 4th of July is my favourite day of the year. In America we call this day Independence Day. People have fun and lots of families have parties. I send invitations to all my cousins and they come to our house. They like coming to my city, Atlanta, because there is a big carnival here. In the morning we watch the parade. Lots of people wear great costumes. There are red, white and blue balloons in the streets and the city looks great. Some people have picnics in the park, but we go home and we have lunch in our garden. Dad makes hamburgers and we have ice cream. We sing songs and we have fun! In the evening there are fireworks in the city. They're amazing! People in my street watch the fireworks and we have a huge street party. I always love it!
