

SHOWS WE ENJOY

Best show ever! Makes you jump in your seat! Everyone will find a 1 _____ that they can relate to. I recommend it to all teens! I didn't really use to think that a TV show could make you learn something about life or 2 _____ your marks, but Glee made me totally change my opinion. Believe me: that is the best TV show of all time! They deal with topics that teens are 3 _____ in and need to be educated in.

Once Upon a Time is the best show ever! This show 4 _____ all the fairytale characters but it's not childish. I love this show! It is fun to talk to your friends about predictions. I don't get 5 _____ to shows, let alone watch TV much, so that just shows everyone how much I love this show and how amazing it is!

Once Upon a Time is the only show I watch and for a good reason! The story is so magical and the characters are beautifully 6 _____.

When something wonderful happens or someone turns back from their evil ways, you cheer, clap and sometimes even cry of happiness! Once Upon A Time takes the fairytales we grew up with and makes them more complex and entertaining. You enjoy the suspense and excitement. At the end of each episode you are never 7 _____. What I 8 _____ the show never gets boring and is super creative in turning the old storybook characters into something new and awesome.

1	contestant	vet	loser	producer
2	invent	improve	involve	manage
3	best	interesting	interested	keen
4	receives	remarks	restores	includes
5	surprised	bored	addicted	excited
6	created	planned	treated	examined
7	home and dry	home and horsed	safe and sound	sick and tired
8	overlooked	watched	won	noticed

Read the magazine article below. Six sentences have been removed from the article. Choose from the sentences A-F the one which best fits each gap. There are two extra sentences which you do not need to use.

Many highly successful people started their ascent to fame and fortune quite early. Bill Gates, for example, spent his teenage years learning to code. 1 _____. While there, Gates discovered his love of computers by writing a computer code for a version of tic-tac-toe.

Meanwhile, young Warren Buffett worked several jobs and had accumulated today's equivalent of $53,000 by age 16. The billionaire CEO of Berkshire Hathaway started building his wealth also at a very young age. One of Buffett's first jobs was delivering The Washington Post. 2 _____.

Oprah Winfrey worked for a local radio station. She bounced between family members before moving in with her dad in Nashville, Tennessee, at age 14. The move sparked a drastic change in her life. Winfrey studied her way to honor-roll status at East Nashville High School and became the most popular girl in her class. 3 _____. She got her first job when she was 16 as a broadcaster at the Nashville radio station. As a 19-year-old sophomore at Tennessee State University Winfrey got a call from a local television station and left school to start her media career.

The Nike founder Phil Knight was a student athlete. 4 _____. As a middle distance runner, he continued his track career at the University of Oregon which is now known for its flashy and ever-changing Nike football uniforms. While being at Oregon in the late 1950s, Knight and track coach Bill Bowerman shared discontent with the quality of running shoes. In 1964, they founded Blue Ribbon Sports.

- A He ran track as a student at Cleveland High School in his hometown of Portland, Oregon.
- B The Microsoft founder spent his early teens attending the prestigious Lakeside prep school in Seattle.
- C As a teen, he also had several personal business ventures, including selling golf balls, buffing cars, selling stamps and setting up pinball machines in barber shops.
- D The club owners played a regular poker game and invited him to join, e More importantly, she established a love for media and joined the school's speech team.
- F His father was paying his tuition but he didn't have money for room and board.