

Ek Burapa School
English Semester 2 Mid-Term Review

Nickname: _____

Grade: 4 / ____ No: ____

Complete the Live Worksheet.

A. First Conditional. Fill in the blanks to complete the First Conditional sentences.

In first conditional sentences, the structure is usually: if + present simple >> will/won't + verb.

Leeds United will be top of the league if they win.

1. If it rains, I _____ (not go) to the park
2. _____ (I study) today, I'll go to the party tonight.
3. _____ (I have) enough money, I'll buy some new shoes.
4. If you drop that glass, _____ (it break).
5. If you don't leave, _____ (I call) the police.
6. _____ (you get) wet if it rains.
7. I will be mad _____ (Sally late) again.
8. _____ (you miss) the bus if you don't hurry.

B. Highlight the correct antonym.

1. I like to give / take my friends presents on their birthdays.
2. We were so happy to win / lose the football match yesterday.
3. It's okay to best / lose a game, as long as you try your best.
4. That was the worst / best pizza I have ever eaten! It was awesome.
5. The weather today is the best / worst; it's so rainy and cold.
6. I felt proud to win / lose the spelling bee competition.
7. I was sad when my team had to win / lose the final game.

8. The best / worst part of the trip was when we got lost in the woods.
9. I always give / take my mom a hug before I leave for school.
10. We had to take / give the bus because our car was broken.

C. Highlight the correct modal verb.

1. This might / will be her house. Is that her car in the garage?
2. She's not here yet. She might / won't be stuck in traffic.
3. He's not answering. He could / will be in class.
4. I may / will go to the park later if the weather is nice.
5. Whose is this coat? It may / won't be Paul's. It's way too small for him.
6. The exam results will be out soon. It will / may be this week or possibly next week.
7. We will / won't visit Grandma after we finish our work. She'll be very surprised.
8. We may / will go to the movies tonight. I've already bought the tickets.

D. Write the correct indefinite pronoun from the textbox. Use each word only once.

Anyone	Anybody	anything	Somebody
Something	everywhere	Someone	Nobody

1. _____ left their backpack in the classroom.
2. _____ can join the art club if they want to.
3. _____ knew the answer to the tricky math problem.
4. _____ smells delicious in the kitchen!
5. _____ forgot their lunch on the table.
6. _____ can learn how to swim if they practice enough.
7. I can't find my phone. I've searched _____ for it.
8. I don't have _____ to wear for the party.

E. Highlight if the sentence is active or passive.

1. Active / Passive The room was cleaned by us after the party.
2. Active / Passive She baked a cake for the party.
3. Active / Passive The teacher explained the lesson to the class.
4. Active / Passive A beautiful picture was painted by Bill.
5. Active / Passive Dinner was made by mom for us.
6. Active / Passive The cat caught a mouse.

F. Fill in the blanks with words from the textbox.

ingredients	fresh	additives	Home-made
vitamins	source	heart	ready-made

A Healthy Snack at Home

One day, Mia decided to make a snack at home. She loved making her own food because she knew exactly what went into it. Her mom always told her that eating _____ fruits and vegetables was the best _____ of _____. They helped keep the _____ healthy and gave her energy to play outside.

Instead of buying _____ snacks full of _____. Mia chose to make a home-made smoothie. She gathered all the _____: bananas, strawberries, and a handful of spinach. Mia knew that these natural ingredients were good for her body.

As she blended everything together, Mia thought about how important it was to know what you're eating and to put the lid on the blender. _____ snacks are a great way to make sure you're getting the best nutrients. Her smoothie was ready, and it tasted delicious!