Choose the correct sentence:

a) Can I have a bottle of water?
b) Can I have a box of water?

a) These bread is tasty.
b) This bread is tasty.

a) How much is this cheese?
b) How much are this cheese?

a) I'd like some apples.
b) I'd like any apples.

a) How much are these oranges?
b) How much is these oranges?

a) Is this chicken fresh?
b) Are this chicken fresh?

a) I'd like a can of tuna.
b) I'd like a bottle of tuna.

Comprehension Passage: At the Supermarket

Every Saturday morning, Lisa goes to the supermarket to buy groceries for the week. She always makes a shopping list before she leaves. Today, her list includes bread, milk, apples, chicken, carrots, and rice. When she arrives, the supermarket is busy, and she has to wait in line to get a shopping cart.

Lisa starts in the fruits and vegetables section. She picks six apples and a bag of carrots. Next, she moves to the bakery section and takes a loaf of bread. In the dairy section, she grabs a bottle of milk. Finally, she visits the meat section, where she buys a kilogram of chicken.

At the checkout, Lisa realizes she forgot to buy rice. She quickly runs back to the aisle and finds a small bag of rice. She pays for her groceries, puts them in her reusable bag, and goes home to start cooking lunch.

1. When does Lisa go to the supermarket?
2. What does Lisa do before she leaves for the supermarket?
3. What are the first two items Lisa picks in the supermarket?
4. Where does Lisa buy the loaf of bread?
5. What does Lisa forget to buy at first?

LIVEWORKSHEETS