Task 1: Read the text.*The Ancient Egyptians

A long time ago, there was a group of people called the Ancient Egyptians. They lived near a big river called the Nile. The Nile was very important because it gave them water to drink and to grow food.

The Ancient Egyptians built big pyramids. These were special places for their kings, called pharaohs, after they died. They also wrote using pictures. This writing was called hieroglyphs.

The people believed in many gods. They thought the gods helped them with the sun, rain, and crops. They also believed in life after death. That is why they made mummies. Mummies are bodies wrapped in cloth to keep them safe for the next life.

Today, we can see many things from Ancient Egypt in museums. The pyramids and the Sphinx are still standing in Egypt, and people from all over the world visit them.
