

ANALYSING BODY PARAGRAPHS

Instruction: Rearrange the sentences to form a coherent paragraph.

BODY PARAGRAPH 1

SENTENCES	NUMBER
For example, friends who play soccer together bond while practicing and cheering one another on during matches.
This is because they can easily support each other due to having similar tastes.
Likewise, engaging in discussions about books or movies can lead to insightful conversations, helping friends understand each other's perspective and values.
Indirectly, this makes the friendship more fulfilling and meaningful.
To begin, shared interests can significantly strengthen friendships among teens.

BODY PARAGRAPH 2

SENTENCES	NUMBER
One might introduce the other to the beauty of art, while the other showcases the wonders of nature.
When friends have diverse interests, they can introduce each other to new perspectives and skills.
To illustrate, when one friend loves painting and the other enjoys hiking, they can exchange experiences.
However, differences can make friendships exciting too.
In this way, differences add depth and richness to friendships, making them more dynamic and rewarding.
