

Read the text below and check that you understand the meanings of the words and phrases in bold. Use a dictionary to help you.

Journalism is changing, but its future is bright. It is a great career choice for a young person with good communication and writing skills. The Internet and technology have transformed news, both the way we get it and how news is gathered. These days, people are demanding news faster than ever before. Many turn to social media for the latest news stories rather than traditional media like TV and the Press. Twitter, for example, has become a major news source. However, printed headlines in newspapers and magazines still grab our attention, and we enjoy reading articles and interviews with celebrities.

Match the words on the write to their meanings on the left:

1) Journalism

A) Something that you have selected.

2) choice

B) Changed

3) transformed

C) Collected from different places.

4) gathered

D) The profession of collecting, writing and publishing news in newspapers and magazines.

5) demanding

E) Printed publications such as magazines and newspapers.

6) social media

F) place where something comes

7) the Press

G) requiring something that you think is necessary.

8) source

H) Websites and other online ways of communication.

9) headlines

I) formal meetings in which one person asks another one questions.

10) grab

J) famous people such as actors, football

11) interviews

K) headings of articles in newspapers.

12) celebrities.

L) take suddenly and quickly.