

Read the text carefully and answer the questions according to the test.

1- According to the text, what should men and women have?

- a) Equality before the law
- b) The same jobs
- c) The same salaries
- d) More children

2- What does the Universal Declaration of Human Rights address?

- a) Only political and economic matters
- b) Only the rights of adults
- c) The rights of animals
- d) Human rights in many areas, such as gender equality, children's rights, and the rights of the disadvantaged

3- How are the rights of disadvantaged people described?

- a) They should be ignored.
- b) Their rights should not be considered important.
- c) They should be treated with respect, and efforts should be made to improve their conditions.
- d) Their rights should only be given to them during emergencies.

4- According to the text, what should children be able to enjoy?

- a) Freedom to make their own laws
- b) The privilege of being a child, education, and their basic rights
- c) A strict education
- d) The right to work

5- What is one of the main goals of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights?

- a) To create laws for every country
- b) To protect human rights from danger and disadvantages
- c) To organize global political events
- d) To promote economic growth

