

Directions: Write a short story about your favorite food. You must give your story a name and include all of the parts of a paragraph. Remember, the parts of a paragraph are the topic sentence, the detail sentences and the concluding sentence. You must also use adjectives to describe your food and bring them to life as you write about them.