

GE7 UNIT 5 THE GREAT OUTDOOR 2

1. Read and match the definition with the word:

way	waterproof jacket	campfire	wildlife	make
read	path	first-aid kit	identify	follow
sleeping bag	use	tent	compass
emergency food	water bottle	torch	over a campfire	put up supplies

Things you should carry with you to eat if you get very hungry when you're a long way from your camp: _____

We couldn't find our _____ back to the camp, so we were completely lost in the woods.

You put it up to sleep when you go camping: _____

Animals and plants living in a natural place, not in a zoo: _____

You use it to carry your own water when you go on a trip: _____

A small electric lamp that you can hold in your hand and carry with you: _____

You can get into this and stay warm while you sleep: _____

You can cook over this outside when you go camping: _____

To work out what something is, for example which type of tree, flower or bird: _____

It helps you avoid getting wet in the rain: _____

If you get lost, you may need to _____ a map or _____ a compass to help you find your way back to the camp.

There are useful things in a _____ which you can use if you get hurt.

A small road for walkers or cyclists, but not for cars: _____

It shows you direction/ where North, South, East and West are: _____

You should learn to _____ a tent and _____ a campfire before the upcoming camping trip.

_____ the path through the woods until you see a hut made out of candy and cookies.

Do you really know how to cook _____?

Read and answer the questions in complete sentences:

When might you need to use a map and a compass?

When might you need to build a shelter?

2. GERUNDS: Read, find the mistake in every sentence and rewrite it:

We're interested in taking this English course and practice English with native speakers.

Do you know that swiming is a really important life skill?

I'm not so good for reading a map.

Put up a tent isn't always easy.

Are you keen identifying insects and plants?

She doesn't really like bungee jump.

Terry imagined walk down the street and suddenly tripping over in front of many people.

We'd like seeing you two at our farewell party next week.

I can never forget to get lost in the forest that day. It was a terrible experience!

Complete the sentences about outdoor activities.

_____ is my favorite outdoor activity.

I don't like _____ on my own.

I'm master at _____, but I'm not very good at _____.

My best friend is really interested in _____.

I don't know anybody who is keen on _____.

_____ is something I'd like to try one day.

I sometimes imagine _____ with my family. That would be a lot of fun!

3. Read and complete the text with the given words:

city	fact	harder	harm	lose	nature	outside refresh	relaxed	sense	true	view	vitality	about

But what*about*.....¹ people who live in a² and don't have time to go³ and enjoy nature? Well, as a matter of⁴, scientists have found that people who work near a window with a⁵ of a park, a garden or even just a tree are more⁶ than those who don't. And because they are more relaxed, these people work or study⁷. So, if your desk isn't near a window, it makes⁸ to take breaks and go to a window with a view of⁹. It seems that just a one-minute break can¹⁰ and rejuvenate you. These 'green micro-breaks', as some psychologists call them, can give us energy and¹¹ throughout the day. Does it all sound a bit too good to be¹²? Well, there's no¹³ in trying it. You've got nothing to¹⁴!