

Ways of expressing future

Verb tense	Uses
Future Simple (will)	- Predictions for the future - Things that are not certain, especially with I think, I hope, I expect, probably and maybe - Requests, promises, offers, express a decision made at the moment
Be going to	- Predictions about the future based on present evidence - Future plans and intentions
Present continuous	Things arranged between people for the future

Look at the examples and write the verb tense and the use:

Example	Verb tense	Use
Sea level will rise by several centimetres
I'm seeing the dentist tomorrow
I think I will pass the English subject
Sergio says he is going to phone you tomorrow
Will you help me with my homework?
I will help you with your homework if you have doubts
There's someone knocking at the door – I will open it!
Look at the clouds! It is going to rain
I will not forget to give you your present
We are visiting my cousins this weekend

Good Luck!

