TOMMY'S BIG BALLOON

Tommy loved balloons. One day, he went to the park with his mom and saw a big red balloon. He was so excited! “Mom, I want that balloon!” he said. His mom bought it for him, and Tommy held the string tightly.

At the playground, Tommy swung high in the air, holding his balloon. But suddenly, a strong wind blew, and the balloon flew out of his hand! Tommy watched as it floated higher and higher. “Oh no!” he said sadly.

A kind man saw what happened and said, “I’ll help you.” The man found a ladder, climbed a tree, and got the balloon back. “Thank you!” Tommy said, hugging his balloon. The man smiled and reminded him, “Be careful next time!”

Tommy promised to hold his balloon tightly and take better care of it from then on.
