How to Make Instant Noodles

- First, boil some water. Add two or three cups (0.5-0.7 liters) of water to a kettle or saucepan
- Second, prepare your instant noodles by pull the lid of the ramen cup back halfway.
- Third, remove any seasoning packets.
- Next, open the packet and add the seasoning to the noodles.
- Then, pour in boiling water. Once the water has boiled and your noodle cup has been prepared, pour the water into the cup.
- After that, let it sit and cook. Once the water has been added, press the lid back into place. Usually, the noodles should sit undisturbed for three to five minutes
- Lastly, stir and enjoy. After the three minutes are up, peel off the lid of the noodle cup. Use chopsticks or a fork to stir the noodles and break them apart. If the noodles are steaming, let the cup sit open for a minute or two. This will help the noodles cool down enough to be eaten.

36. The first step to make instant noodles is boiling some water. (True / False)
37. You need to add seasoning to the noodles. (True / False)
38. You can pour the boiling water into the cup before open the packet and add the seasoning. (True / False)
