

Gapped Text Exercise: Complete the Text with the Missing Sentences

During the week, my schedule is usually very busy with school and homework. I wake up early, get ready quickly, and head to school. After coming home, I try to finish my homework before dinner.

(1)

On weekends, things are more relaxed. I can sleep a bit longer and enjoy breakfast with my family. However, weekends are also the time when everyone helps with household chores.

(2)

I don't mind some chores, like setting the table or making my bed, but I really dislike taking out the rubbish, especially when it's cold outside.

(3)

My sister and I often help our parents with cooking. I enjoy helping in the kitchen because I like trying new recipes.

(4)

After finishing our chores, we usually have time to relax or do something fun together, like watching a movie or playing board games.

(5)

Even though chores aren't always fun, they are important, and they help our family work as a team..

- A. It's nice to spend time with my family after finishing everything.
- B. I think it's fair because everyone has their own task to complete.
- C. Drying the dishes is also something I find boring, but it needs to be done.
- D. Sometimes, we prepare desserts like chocolate cake or fruit salad.
- E. By the end of the day, I feel proud of what I've accomplished.