

VERB TO BE

PRESENT AND PAST

- After reading the BE MAP, read this short text.
- In some of these sentences, there's something missing! Complete them with the correct form of the verb to be (present and past).
One has been done for you.
- Read carefully and pay attention to details. This way, you will know if you need to use present or past.

Peter IS a 12-year-old boy. His best friend ____ Paul. They ____ thinking about starting in a new basketball team with more of their friends. Peter is nervous because he ____ in a different team last year, playing football. He asks his other friend Sara for help.

"Sara, I need help!" he said.

Sara answered, "I know you ____ nervous, Peter. Do not worry. You ____ a football player last year, but you will do great with basketball!"

"Thanks, Sara! I ____ ok now".