

Clothes idioms

I. Match the idioms with their meanings

1. Have a bee in your bonnet
2. Get hot under the collar
3. Put on a thinking cap
4. At the drop of a hat
5. Roll up your sleeves
6. Button your lips
7. Fit like a glove
8. A wolf in sheep's clothing
9. To be in someone else's shoes

- a. someone very dangerous who pretends to be harmless
- b. to talk a lot about something you think is important, to have an obsession
- c. prepare for hard work
- d. to do something very quickly without thinking about it.
- e. to be very angry
- f. to think seriously in order to solve a problem
- g. imagine that you are in someone else's situation
- h. a way of telling someone to shut up
- i. be the perfect size or shape for someone

II. Complete the sentences with the correct idiom.

have a bee under my bonnet

Lilly's shoes

button your lips

to roll up my sleeves

hot under the collar

the drop of a hat

a wolf in sheep's clothing

fits me like a glove

put on a thinking cap

1. I'll tell you something if you promise to..... It is a secret.
2. I've been obsessed with that idea for ages. My parents say I
3. I know that you aren't satisfied with your job, but what would you do if you were in.....? She is unemployed.
4. My sister's dress.....
5. Susan has a big problem. She has toin order to solve it.
6. My grades are not very good. My mother told me yesterday to..... If I don't do that, I will not be allowed to go out any more.
7. He did that atand felt sorry later. It was not his intention.
8. Don't you think that Nick is.....? He pretends to be nice, but he actually isn't.
9. When she found out that her boyfriend had been cheating on her, she was.....