

Gap-Filling Exercise

Listen to the recording and fill in the blanks with the correct words or phrases:

1. Where is your school?

My school is in the _____, which makes it very easy to get to. Since it's in such a _____, I can also visit _____, cafes, and other places nearby that help me with my studies.

2. Do you like your school?

Yes, I really _____ my school because it's a place where I can _____ a lot and meet people who are _____ to do well. Moreover, the teachers are also very _____, which makes learning enjoyable.

3. Do you think your school is a good place to study?

Yes, my school is a _____ place to study because it has everything we need, like a good _____ and well-equipped _____ labs. In addition, the teachers are always ready to _____, which makes it easier to focus on learning.

4. What is the environment like at your school?

The environment at my school is very _____ and encouraging. For example, students often _____ together on projects, and there are many _____ to keep us involved. Well, frankly speaking, it's a place where everyone tries to do their _____.

5. What do you think could be improved in your school?

Although my school is great, I think it could have more _____ where students can choose to study _____ or in groups. This would make it easier for everyone to learn in the way that _____ them best.

6. How important is interest in study?

Interest in study is extremely _____ because it keeps you _____ despite challenges. When you're _____ about what you're learning, even _____ the midnight oil feels like an _____ in your future.

Interest in study is very _____ because it helps you stay _____ and work hard, even when things get _____. When you like what you're _____, it feels easier and more _____.

7. Which subject do you find challenging?

_____ is quite challenging for me because it requires sharp _____ skills and meeting tight _____ for assignments. However, I see it as an _____ to sharpen my _____ abilities.

I find _____ a bit difficult because it needs a lot of _____ thinking and _____-solving. Even though it's hard, I try to see it as a way to _____ my skills.

8. How do you go to school?

I usually go to school by _____, which allows me to manage my _____ effectively. During the commute, I often _____ my notes or listen to educational _____ to make the most of my day.

I usually take the _____ to school. It's _____, and I use the time to _____ my notes or listen to _____, so the journey feels _____.

9. What are you studying?

I'm currently _____ a degree in computer science, which I find both _____ and rewarding. It offers opportunities to explore _____-edge technologies and prepare for a _____ career in IT.

I'm studying _____. It's a bit _____, but I enjoy it because it prepares me for a career in _____, which is something I'm _____.

10. Why did you choose this subject?

I chose computer science because I'm _____ by how _____ is shaping our future. I aim to gain _____ in this field and use it to climb the _____ ladder.

Well, I chose computer science because I'm really _____ in _____ and how it is _____ the world. I want to learn more about it and use this _____ to build my _____ career.

11. What do you like most about your studies?

.....is the balance between theoretical knowledge and practical application. For instance, during lab sessions, I gain hands-onwhich helps me sharpen my skills and stay
I like that my studies include both and practice. For example, we have lab sessions where I can what I've learned. This makes studying more interesting and

12. Are you more interested in theoretical or practical subjects? Why?

I prefer subjects because they allow me to gain hands-on experience and real-world scenarios. This approach not only sharpens my skills but also builds my for future challenges.

I prefer practical subjects because I like to apply what I've learned in real situations. It makes learning more fun and gives me I can use in the future.

13. Do you find your studies difficult? Why or why not?

Sometimes, the workload can be....., especially when I have to meet tight deadlines.
However, I stay motivated by setting and managing my schedule effectively.
Sometimes my studies are a bit hard, especially when I have a lot of assignments or..... But I try to manage my time well and stay which helps me deal with the workload.

14. How do you usually prepare for exams?

I prepare for exams bya study schedule that helps me balance my workload. I also collaborate with classmates for group discussions and past papers to improve my understanding.

I prepare for exams by making a study plan so I can manage my time well. I also study with my classmates and practice past papers to my understanding of the topics.

15. Do you prefer studying alone or with others? Why?

I prefer a mix of both. Studying alone helps me focus and my time effectively, while group study sessions are engaging and help me explore perspectives.

I like both. When I study alone, I can better, but studying with others helps me learn from different and understand things more clearly

16. What are your future plans after finishing your studies?

After completing my studies, I plan to a career in software engineering. My ultimate goal is to climb the career ladder by gaining expertise in my field and making a meaningful impact in a reputable company.

After I my studies, I plan to work as a software engineer. I want to keep learning and improving my skills so I can build acareer and contribute to interesting projects