The school skiing trip by Molly Green, Class 9B

Last week, a group of students from my school went on a skiing trip. We travelled to the mountains by coach. I wasn't looking (27)_____ to the journey, but actually it was fine. I was (28)_____ busy chatting that I forgot I usually feel ill on long journeys!

We were away for four days, and skied every day. We were divided into groups depending (29)_____ our level – I was in the beginners' group. Our teacher was great. On the first morning, (30)_____ of us could even stand up on our skis, but after just a few hours we were all happily skiing down the less steep parts of the mountain.

Everyone met up in the evenings for dinner, and we had fun telling (31)_____ other about our experiences.

If you enjoy skiing, or even if you've never skied before, maybe you should sign (32)_____ for next year's trip. I loved it!
