

Adverbs

Point each adverb you identify in each sentences.

She looked upon the creature inquisitively.

George has been lazily lounging around the house all day.

I'm afraid the knight was mortally wounded in battle.

Nervously, Alice turned on the knob and opened the door.

And they lived merrily ever after.

The circumstances rapidly changed overnight.