WS2 - MODAL VERBS OF DEDUCTION

In the Present

Match each situation to the correct deduction.

SITUATIONS:

1. There's an open umbrella by the door.

2. He's wearing a heavy coat, scarf, and gloves.

3. The light in her office is on, but no one is answering the door.

4. The streets are very quiet in the middle of the day.

5. She is smiling and laughing with her friends.

6. A cat is sitting by the window, looking outside.

7. There's a pizza box on the table, but no one is in the kitchen.

8. A child is looking around the room, calling for someone.

DEDUCTIONS:

A. She must be in a good mood.

B. It might be raining outside.

C. He must be cold.

D. It can't be rush hour.

E. She might be in her office but not hearing the doorbell.

F. The cat must be watching birds.

G. Someone might have just finished eating pizza.

H. The child must be looking for their parent.